Important Bathing Dates

At Sangam Serenity, the main ritual is the Shahi Snan, or ritual bath, performed on auspicious days.

Hindus believe it cleanses them and their ancestors of sin, ending the cycle of rebirth. Pilgrims line up from early morning, and as the sun rises, sadhus lead processions to the river for bathing. Each group tries to outdo the others in grandeur, creating a magical moment of absorption and devotion.

13 JANUARY, 2025: PAUSH PURNIMA

Paush Purnima, the full moon day in the Hindu month of Paush, holds significance as a bathing date in the Prayagraj Magh Mela. Thousands gather at Prayag for a holy bath at Sangam, the confluence of Ganga, Yamuna, and Saraswati rivers. It's also celebrated as Shakambari Jayanti, drawing heavy rush to Hindu temples nationwide.

3 FEBRUARY 2025: BASANT PANCHAMI

Vasant Panchami, the fifth day of Maagh, marks the joyful onset of spring in Hindu tradition. Also called Saraswati Puja, it honors the goddess of knowledge. It's a time of renewal, celebrated with vibrant colors and fervent prayers for wisdom and creativity. The festival signifies the awakening of nature and the beginning of auspicious times ahead.

14 JANUARY, 2025: MAKAR KANKRANTI

Sangam Serenity initiation coincides with Makar Sankranti, a celestial alignment where the sun, moon, and Jupiter converge, believed to open a path to higher realms. This auspicious occasion beckons millions to Sangam at dawn, where pilgrims embark on a spiritual journey amidst reverberating chants and vibrant displays of flags and banners, creating an atmosphere charged with devotion and anticipation.

12 FEBRUARY 2025: MAGHI PURNIMA SNAN

Sangam Serenity initiation coincides with Makar Sankranti, a celestial alignment where the sun, moon, and Jupiter converge, believed to open a path to higher realms. This auspicious occasion beckons millions to Sangam at dawn, where pilgrims embark on a spiritual journey amidst reverberating chants and vibrant displays of flags and banners, creating an atmosphere charged with devotion and anticipation.

29 JANUARY 2025 : MAUNI AMAVASYA SNAN

Mauni Amavasya, the new moon day in Magh Masa, aligns with the sun and moon entering Capricorn, signifying the birthday of Manu Rishi and the universe's creation.

Bathing in Prayagraj's Sangam holds immense virtue on this day. Some scholars advocate observing Maun Vrat, a vow of silence to control the senses, which individuals may uphold for a day, a month, or even a year.

26 FEBRUARY 2025: MAHA SHIVRATRI

Maha Shivratri honors the god Shiva, celebrated on the 13th night/14th day of every lune-solar month.

Observances include prayers, fasting, yoga, and meditation on virtues like self-restraint and forgiveness.

In 2025, it marks the concluding day of Kumbh Mela at Prayagraj, with the next Maha Kumbh in Nasik-Trimbakeshwar scheduled for 2027.
